

Dear Joe and Milly,

In our 49 years of marriage, we have had innumerable home parties, many of them catered. None of them have ever approached the standard of excellence which you have provided. We were impressed with our meeting with you when we went over the menu and the ideas we had for the birthday brunch. You had provided us with samples of the food, which easily convinced us that you were the people we wanted to deal with. You listened to all of our ideas and added a few of your own. Not only did you deliver all that we had talked about, but we were completely astounded at all the unexpected, wonderful fine touches that you included. Everything went like clock work. Everything was set up and ready before the first guests arrived. The serving tables were beautiful and professionally set up. The food was exceptional. But best of all, were the staff. Joe was courteous, efficient and seemingly in a dozen places at once. The staff treated our guests in the most professional manner and extended themselves beyond anything we expected. The table linens and decorations were lovely and to find place settings at each table was a lovely surprise. The espresso bar was a great hit. We have received so many complements but none as great as the pleasure we felt at being able to host such a fabulous event. For the first time, we were truly guests at own party. Thank you so much for doing this for us.

We would be please to have you include this in your letters of reference.

Gratefully,

Ellie and Alan Klein
